

"I the LORD do not change. So you, O descendants of Jacob, are not destroyed. ever!"
Malachi 3:6

Ever hear the saying, "The only thing that doesn't change is that everything changes."? That rings so true in our lives today. It seems that we cannot get used to something before it changes. Car models, computer software, television schedules. Then of course there are the more important things like our friends moving, our jobs changing, our loved ones passing away. It seems that there is no where we can go to just rest and relax and know that we don't have to worry because this will be the same next time.

Well, actually, there is somewhere we can go to get the same thing today and tomorrow. That place is the cross where Jesus died. It's the place we can go and know that our God is listening to us. It's the place we can go and know that regardless of what we have done or what has happened to us, our God has already paid the price for us.

What a glorious God we have! That he would come down from heaven and die as one of his own creations! That he would bear our burden, our sins, solely because he wants us near! Can there be a better place to go when the world treats us unkindly, when life seems so unfair, when nothing seems to make sense anymore?

Go to him thirsty. He will satisfy you with streams of living water. Go to him hungry. He will fill you with good things. Our God never changes. He is the same yesterday, today and tomorrow. We can rest assured knowing that we can go to Him anytime and He will hear us and provide for us. As sure as we all will pass away, our God has provided a way for us to see His unchanging mercy. It is only at the cross that we find peace and it is there that we experience the unchanging love of our unchanging God and life everlasting. All praise to Him forever! Amen!
